

An update from Quality Assurance Department

Dear Students,

We will be providing you with weekly updates on various policies that are developed to protect your interests and rights in Nelson College London.

The update for this week focuses on 'Appeal Against Admissions Decision Policy'.

This policy was developed with an aim to ensure that fairness & reliability are the embedded principles within admissions, recruitment and selection processes.

The policy enables the College to have transparent processes for handling complaints of prospective students.
