

An update from Quality Assurance Department

Dear Students,

The update for last week focused on 'Assessment Decision Review Request Policy'. This policy provides you with the information on the processes of making an appeal against any assessment decision that you feel is unfair or inconsistent.

The update for this week focuses on 'Assessment Policy'. This policy aims to outline the guidance around assessment brief, assessment decisions, internal verification processes and breach of academic regulations.

The link to the policy on NCL website is as follows:
